

Force Protection – JFHQ

Now Accepting Applications Through 15 August 2011

Summary: Force Protection is now accepting applications and conducting interviews of individuals interested in joining the Force Protection team as opportunities arise. If selected, individuals will be placed on State Active Duty orders through 30 September with the potential for renewal for FY12 based upon receipt of funding.

Qualifications: Interested individuals must be E5 or below and actively participating in the Army or Air Guard in an M-Day status. Must have reliable transportation and have no criminal history that would restrict their ability to carry firearms. There are no restrictions based upon MOS and positions are open to male and female soldiers and airmen. Applicants must be physically fit as the position requires long periods of standing and walking and may require physical exertion in the form of running or physically restraining aggressive or combative individuals.

Details: State Active Duty orders are issued from 1 October through 30 September each year based upon funding. There is no guarantee of continued funding of the Force Protection program each year. Pay is a combination of base pay, BAH, and BAS based upon grade and time in service. Annual leave is accrued at a rate of 2 days per month. All gear and training will be provided by Force Protection. Current certification on 9mm, TASER, OC Spray, and ASP baton will be accepted.

Duty Location: Duty is performed at State Headquarters in Centennial but Force Protection members can be tasked for duty 24/7 statewide depending on mission requirements.

Duty Hours: Force Protection members normally work 4-10 hour shifts, Tuesday thru Friday. Normal state holidays are granted to Force Protection members as well.
